

Shaikh Mohammed at the 10th Annual Careers Show at the Dubai International Convention and Exhibition Centre on Monday, where he said giving opportunities to young job-seekers was the duty of federal and local governments. — Wam

Mohammed Instructs Government Entities to Open Door Further

DUBAI — Government departments have been directed to open their doors to qualified UAE graduates and help hone their skills.

His Highness Shaikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Vice-President and Prime Minister of the UAE and Ruler of Dubai, on Monday said authorities concerned should coordinate with federal and local governments to absorb the legion of male and female graduates to obviate unemployment in a country enjoying prosperity.

He was speaking at the 10th Annual Careers Show at the Dubai International Convention and Exhibition Centre after being updated on job avenues by more than 100 employers from the public and private sectors.

He said during a tour of the careers show development projects needed the hands and energy of the country's human resources to contribute to sustainable development, which would not stop till the targets were reached and construction was complete.

Organised by the Dubai World Trade Centre — jointly with TANMIA, the Emirates Nationals Development Programme (ENDP), Higher Colleges of Technology, Zayed University and UAE University — the careers show is open till March 30.

The show provides the exhibitor with exposure to more people over a shorter periods of time, ensuring a cost-effective promotion and recruiting opportunity. — Wam

» SEE PAGE 4